27 June 2022

LTP / 03 / 2022

Dear parents / guardians,

Letter to Parents – Term Three 2022

Greetings from Outram Secondary School (OSS) and welcome back to Term 3! I trust that everyone has had a restful and fruitful break in June as more community and border measures are eased.

As Term 3 commences, I would like to encourage our students to participate wholeheartedly in the enriching academic and co-curricular programmes that we have specially prepared for you. I also urge our graduating classes to build momentum in their studies as they pick up their pace in preparing for the GCE N and O level examinations. Our school is behind your child/ ward and will support him/ her where required.

Reminders on Safe Management Measures (SMMs) for Schools

To continue to keep the school safe for everyone, all students are reminded to always adhere to prevailing national Safe Management Measures (SMMs).

Please inform your child/ ward's Form Teachers immediately if:

- your child/ ward has fever/ flu-like symptoms – please ensure your child/ ward does not come to school, and seeks medical attention where required; please only allow your child/ ward to return to school after your child/ ward with fever/ flu-like symptoms has a negative ART test result; and/ or
- your child/ ward tests positive for Covid. Your child will be instructed on the prevailing national protocols.
- your family member(s) tests positive. Your child will be instructed on the prevailing national protocols.

All students are also reminded to:

- wear their masks at all times, except when eating and drinking when they should not be talking to another person, and to put the mask back on immediately after;
- upkeep good personal hygiene habits (e.g. handwashing, wipe-down of personal space, cleaning routines);
- Ensure that their Trace Together (TT) tokens/ apps function well.

Character Values for Term 3 – Sense of Belonging & Perseverance

In line with the school's character and values education, we would like to emphasise the OSS values of 'Sense of Belonging' and 'Perseverance' in Term 3. Through our academic and CCA programmes, we will continue to imbue these key values in our students to develop their character for life.

GCE N and GCE O Level Oral and LC Examinations

The GCE N and O Level Oral and Listening Comprehension Examinations will run from 5 July to 19 August 2022. All students sitting for the examinations are reminded to report to the examination venue on time with their identity card and appropriate school attire. All other students are reminded to provide a conducive school environment for their graduating class peers while the examinations are in progress.

Blended Learning@Home (BL@Home) for Secondary 1 to 3 students

Secondary 1 to 3 students will continue Blended Learning (BL) in Term 3. Secondary 1 to 3 students will follow the below BL@Home schedule:
